

Permit No. 6.

January 15, 1916.

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERIES OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS RESERVATION, ALASKA.

Under the provisions of Executive Order of March 3, 1913, establishing the Aleutian Islands Reservation, and in accordance with the regulations for the Aleutian Islands Reservation, Alaska, effective March 15, 1914, the Pacific American Fisheries, whose post-office address is South Bellingham, Washington, is hereby authorized to construct and operate on Unalaska Island, Alaska, a plant for the canning or salting of salmon or other foodfishes taken in the vicinity of Unalaska Island, and to sell the product thereof, subject to the following conditions:

1. That all work except that requiring skilled mechanics or operatives in connection with the taking of fish and their subsequent preparation for market shall be performed by Aleuts or Indians who are residents of the said reservation.
2. That a weekly close season shall be observed from 6 p.m. Saturday to 6 a.m. Monday of each week, during which time all fishing appliances shall be out of the water.
3. That there shall be no fishing within any salmon stream or within one hundred yards outside the mouth of any such stream.
4. That no salmon or other foodfish shall be taken with any pound net, trap, stake net, or other fixed fishing appliance.
5. That in addition to the restrictions herein imposed the permittee shall observe all existing laws and the regulations for the administration of the Aleutian Islands Reservation, copies of which are hereto attached, as well as those that may be hereafter enacted or promulgated for such purpose.

6. That failure to observe the stipulations of this permit will automatically result in its termination.

7. That this permit is not transferable and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

Secretary.
